Login to your assigned account at the following website:

http://SCHOOLS.Learn2Type.com/Login

Type the entire web address as shown above into the "address bar" in your Internet browser and press the ENTER or RETURN key.
If a "shortcut" or "favorite" has been added on your computer workstation, you may click that item instead of typing the address.
Please note that you must login using the LOGIN NAME assigned to you, NOT your real (student) name.

The Login screen looks like this:

After login, you will be taken to the Members starting page where you can access each of the online Typing lessons. You can return to the Members page at any time by clicking the MEMBERS item in the menu bar towards the top of each page on the website (shown circled in the picture above). To begin Typing exercises, simply click on the Exercise number desired. Your current level will be marked with an arrow on the left side of the Exercise list. You can click on that Exercise to continue your Typing lessons.
